

New Directions and Motivational Interviewing

21 years of experience and the future for motivational interviewing

36th Annual NDSAG Conference

Date: Thursday 24th - Sunday 27th May 2012

Venue: Metropole Hotel, Llandrindod Wells, Powys

This conference brings together key figures involved in the genesis of MI, including original creator Professor Stephen Rollnick co-author of 'Motivational Interviewing', and those who have adopted and adapted the concepts and practice to review the impact of this groundbreaking work.

During his presentation at the conference Professor Rollnick, whose landmark book with Professor Bill Miller was published 21 years ago, will unveil the next developments in Motivational Interviewing in advance of the publication of the latest edition.

& a Symposium of Alcohol Research UK work

As well as the review of motivational interviewing lead by Professor Rollnick our 2012 conference as ever includes an Alcohol Research UK (formerly AERC) symposium to showcase some of the research they have funded.

Other contemporary issues the conference will examine are;

- Mandated alcohol treatment
- How to develop practitioners' alcohol knowledge
- How to harness social media

Also launching for the 2012 conference is the Ron McKechnie Prize. Created in memory of one of NDSAG's founding members entrants must submit a paper for inclusion in the New Directions Journal and will win a bursary for free attendance at the 2012 conference. To find out the details of the competition and how to enter email Trevor McCarthy.

Keep checking our website www.newdirections.org.uk as more information on the conference will be added in due course or contact Trevor McCarthy (Conference Organiser) by e-mailing trev.mcc@virgin.net. Booking forms will be available on our website by the end of October 2011.
